08th June 2010

Dear Colleague,

ELECTION PROCESS

As provided in the Constitution, the election will be held for the following positions during the Annual General Meeting to be held on 13th June, 2010 at Chennai in the following order:

Office Bearers:

- President
- 8 Vice-Presidents
- 4 Chairmen of Sub-Committee being Ex-Officio Vice-Presidents
- Hon. Secretary General
- Hon. Treasurer
- 8 Hon. Joint Secretaries
- 1 Advisor

Not more than 16 members of the Executive Committee

Except for the President & the Secretary General, all other office bearers and members of the Executive Committee will be elected from within the Council. Nominations will be received on the floor of the House.

Every nomination has to be, as per standard established procedure, proposed by a delegate of a Member Association, seconded by a delegate of another Member Association and accepted by the individual being proposed and seconded. If the number of the valid nominations is the same as the number of the vacancies, the candidates nominated shall be deemed to be duly elected and the Chairman of the Annual General Meeting shall declare them duly elected. In case there are more than one valid nomination for a post, election will be conducted based on secret ballot.

With regard to President and Hon. Secretary General, if the nomination is for an individual who is outside the Council, his/her acceptance of being proposed by a delegate of a Member Association and seconded by a delegate of another Member may be placed before the Returning Officer. The Returning Officer shall declare the list of valid nominations before the item on agenda of election of President / Honorary Secretary General is taken up in the meeting.

As per the established procedure, at the start of the Annual General Meeting, a Returning Officer shall be appointed by the Annual General Meeting to conduct the elections.
